12. ENTRIES

The Organizer introduces the following entry limits:

LL Class – 5 horses

L Class – 35 horses

P – Masters Classes – 50 horses

In the LL and L classes, if fewer competitors enter the L class than specified in the limit, it is possible to accept more entries in the LL class.

In the P - Masters classes, priority is given to competitors entered in the Masters, Young Riders and Juniors classes, followed by the remaining national classes, i.e. CC – P classes, up to the limit specified above.

At the same time, the Organizer reserves the right, in a justified case, to reduce the limits indicated above, which will be announced immediately by a separate announcement.

17. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR THE WELFARE OF THE HORSE

- I. At all stages of training and preparing a horse for competition, the welfare of the horse must stand above all other requirements. This includes constant care, training methods, careful grooming, farriery and transport.
- II. Horses and riders must be healthy, competent and trained before they compete. This also applies to the use of drugs, medical supplies and surgical procedures that endanger the welfare of the horse or the mare's pregnancy, and to cases of abuse of medical assistance.
- III. Participation in the competition must not endanger the welfare of the horse. Particular attention must be paid to the competition area, the technical condition of the ground, the stable and weather conditions, the condition of the horses and their safety, also during the return journey from the competition.
- IV. Every effort should be made to ensure that horses are carefully cared for after the competition, and that they are treated humanely at the end of their sporting career. This includes proper veterinary care, treatment of injuries sustained in competition, quiet old age, and possibly euthanasia.
